

2017 NOHA WINTER SCHOOL Pavia

The Humanitarian-Development Nexus

University of Pavia - Italy
Department of Economics and Management

27 November - 1 December 2017

The second edition of the NOHA Winter School offers a practice-oriented approach to the main key issues, challenges and professional implications concerning the Humanitarian-Development Nexus.

The course faculty includes leading experts from around the humanitarian world, such as Non-Governmental and International Organizations and think tanks, presenting conceptual and practical insights, thus offering participants first-hand experience drawn from major humanitarian emergencies.

The Winter School is organized by the University of Pavia, the Network on Humanitarian Action (NOHA-International Association of University), in collaboration with CISP (International Committee for the Development of Peoples), with the support of DG ECHO.
